

- 12. Al Head: Margarett Gone Eastern (Al Head) (5:12) B-side of track 11, a less "produced" and more acoustic original song.
- 13. Chain: I Thought You Weren't My Friend (Chain) Mushroom INK-5147 1973 (3:25) Non-LP single that has managed to escape inclusion on various Chain compilations too. Phil Manning is on lead vocals.
- 14. Chain: Elephant (Chain) (3:14) B-side of track 13, AKA 'How To Set Fire To An Elephant'. A different recording of this instrumental was included on the "Two Of A Kind" LP.
- 15. Daddy Cool: Boy You're Paranoid (Wilson) Wizard ZS-104 1973 (2:34) A rare edited version of the song, from the B-side of the hard-to-find 'Flash In My Head' single. Originally appeared on the "Last Drive In Movie Show" live album.
- 16. Glenn Cardier: Same Old Story (Cardier) Interfusion K-? 1976 (3:34) Single-only release, only otherwise released on the now deleted "Festival File" album in 1989. Brian Bennet from the Shadows is on drums.
- 17. Glenn Cardier: Man On The Roof (Cardier) (2:51) B-side of track 16; also appeared on his UK-recorded self-titled LP.
- 18. Morgan & Matthews: Raw Love (Morgan) Champagne CHS 602 1976 (3:26) B-side of 'Endless Winter's Night'. Vocals by Warren Morgan, produced & engineered by Gil Matthews.
- 19. Rabbit: Wildfire (L&D Van Eaton) CBS 222207 1976 (3:04) Newcastle band featuring original AC/DC vocalist Dave Evans, treading the line between glam-rock and cock-rock. A-side of single (#87 nationally) and also on their LP "Too Much Rock & Roll".
- 20. Maureen Elkner: Seven Nights A Week (Vanda/Young) 7 Records MS 258 1978 (3:31) Unfortunately best known for the novelty hit 'Rak Off Normie', this later single shows Elkner to have a very fine voice, and a much rockier side to her material.
- 21. The Ferrets: This Night (Howson/Miller/Firth) Mushroom K7249 1978 (3:27) First single from the band's second LP "Fame At Any Price", recorded when they were down to a four-piece lineup. Neither sold well and the band split a few months later.
- 22. Billy Miller & The Great Blokes: Perpetual Motion (Miller) Mushroom K-? 1982 (3:33) Formed by Miller and Ken Firth after The Ferrets' split. The "Hits Or Myths" compilation LP of 1984 credits the recording to just Miller, however. Not a hit.

THIS CDR IS FOR TRADE ONLY, NOT FOR SALE. Simple as that.
Compiled 2005.
